

Domes of Delight

These bell-jar beauties are sure to tickle your fancy and fan your flame!

These collectable, covetable and quirky erotic art sculptures are inspired by the Victorian decorative arts but with decidedly modern adult themes.

Sizes vary, but average range from 20cm - 30cm diameter black lacquered wooden bases with hand blown glass dome tops.

Why not commission your own dome? Price on Application.

They make brilliant, unique gifts for friends, lovers, and couples.

Customisable in a number of settings - the characters can be sculpted and personalised from your supplied photos.

Marcus Murray is a film industry sculptor and modelmaker with 18 years experience of creating incredible things. And a dark, albeit brief, past working for the porn industry making prosthetic body parts (don't ask) so he's quite unshockable.

UK Christmas orders taken until 10 Dec 2016.

International orders - please enquire and we will do our best to accommodate your request.
